CAREER IN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Shreeprakash Sharma

"Knowledge of language is the doorway to wisdom."

It is said that language is the soul of human being. It is also the most natural means of communicating and expressing what we feel so earnestly about. There is no gainsaying the fact that in the changing global scenario, especially in the post-transitional period of liberalization and globalization, the importance of foreign language has increased manifold which goes beyond any one's imagination. In the wake of the fast increase in the inflow of multinational companies, incredible hike in the foreign direct investment and the rapid rate of investment made by Indian companies abroad, the knowledge of foreign languages has started to be reckoned as a golden passport to a host of career opportunities in the country and abroad.

WHY SHOULD WE LEARN A FOREIGN LANGUAGE?

Learning foreign languages not only enriches our life style and enhances cultural ethos but also offers an unbelievable cornucopia of career alternatives and promising job opportunities. We also succeed in having different perspectives and visions of life and the world around us. Our cognitive quality and life skills get very naturally improved. Getting a job at an international level also helps to have a lucrative income, global fame and international identity.

We learn the art of cultural tolerance, behavioral competence and religious adjustment with people from different socio-cultural backgrounds. As per an international report, there would be requirement of more than 1.6 million foreign language experts in various segments of the job market in the coming two decades, especially when the multinational companies are so fast mushrooming across the world.

The foreign language professionals are expected to get recruited in various BPO, IT, and KPO in India. These professionals may also be recruited in the companies outsourced to India from the European countries. As per the latest trend of global job market and complex culture, the demand for professionals specialized in foreign languages such as French, Russian, German, Chinese, Portuguese, Japanese, Korean, Spanish is likely to soar at a rate never expected before.

NECESSARY ELIGIBILITIES

For getting a degree in a foreign language the aspirants must have passed the plus 2 examination from a recognized board. The duration of the bachelor's degree course is usually of three years. After the degree in foreign language the interested candidates can join the 2-year Postgraduate course and thereafter Ph.D.

PACKAGE AND PERKS

Much like other genres and professional degrees and diplomas, foreign language too provides very high compensation when a candidate is more experienced. However, in the beginning a candidate is offered not less than Rs. 30,000 to 40,000 per month salary. Employments in foreign embassies and business consulates could also fetch the same amount of pay package but in case of jobs in the evergreen fields of interpretation and translation services professionals may get considerably higher pay package. A skilled interpreter is offered between Rs. 1000 per hour to Rs. 25,000 a day. Translators may charge anywhere between Rs 1 per word to Rs 10 per word. All these remunerations depend upon the nature of language and economic background as well as the brand name of the hirers and the organizations.

WHERE TO LEARN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Many of the educational Institutes have foreign languages.

Encouraging Environment for

Small Enterprises

Ashwani Mahajan

Small Enterprises have always had an important place in the Indian economy, may it be output, employment or exports. Apart from this, they have been vehicles of growth with equity and decentralisation. Therefore, economic policy should rightfully be targeted at promotion and protection of small enterprises. However, for more than two decades, this sector has been in a serious crisis. Closure of a large number of small enterprises has not only become a stumbling block in the creation of jobs, growth and development of the economy is also getting hurt.

Impact of Liberalization and Globalization

Industrial Policy adopted in the post independence period imposed various restrictions on large scale private industries; and industrial policy at that time became synonymous with 'License and Quota Raj'. While existing industries learned the art of living with this policy, the same policy created barriers for new entrepreneurs.

So far as the Small Scale Industries were concerned, the policy allowed SSI's to operate in the consumer goods sector and even many items were reserved for SSI's. Before the advent of the new economic policy in 1991, 812 items were reserved for production in the Small Scale sector. The New Economic Policy (NEP) storm mercilessly killed this policy of reservation. Similarly, Small Industries were given preference in government procurement as well, both in terms of price and purchase preference. Slowly these concessions to SSI's vanished in the name of promoting competition. It was said that reservation policy for SSI's comes in the way of development of technology and skills competition. Protection causes inefficiencies and country would not withstand international competition. It was argued that if we continue protecting domestic industry including Small Scale Industries, Foreign Investors would be discouraged and consumers choices would also be hampered. NEP's arguments took precedence over arguments of employment, decentralization and equity favouring concessions to SSI's.
Three Heritage Gandhian Literature Books in Tamil Released

On completion of the Centenary of Champaran Satyagraha, Publications Division released Tamil editions of three important books on Gandhi thought, ideas, and values, in Chennai. on 10th April 2018. These books were published in partnership with Gandhi National Museum, New Delhi. The books were released by Smt. Prabha Sridevan, Former Judge of Madras High Court and an eminent writer and columnist. The books are - Gandhi in Champaran (by renowned Gandhian scholar D.G. Tendulkar), Bapu ke Saath (by Kanu and Abha Gandhi) and Gandhi and One World. The translation was provided by Gandhi Study Circle, Chennai.

On this occasion, Justice Smt. Prabha Sridevan lauded the efforts of the Publications Division in restoring relatively lower costs. Roughly such courses cost anywhere between Rs. 2-3 lakh per annum.

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCING

In the wake of the high course fees for the study of foreign languages, there are various provisions of scholarships and funding by the Universities and the government. In this regard, Max Mueller Bhavan in India has a very attractive scheme which offers two scholarships to the two best students of advanced level learning of foreign languages. Similarly, Jawaharlal Nehru University has a marvellous exchange programme under which students are offered options to study in foreign universities during their regular study at JNU and vice versa.

Moreover, University of Delhi too has provision of scholarship the criteria of which are sheer merit and quality of the university results. However, the foreign governments like those of Korea and Japan have their own programmes under which they provide scholarship to the students who opt for the study of their respective languages.

JOB PROSPECTS

The learning of a foreign language opens doors to an array of job opportunities in the present dynamic global scenario of the world. It is not only a matter of having an ace up your sleeve and pride for the learners to possess the knowledge of a foreign language but also encourage aspirant to better face the market of today’s cut-throat-competition.

Academic degrees and proficiency of a foreign language prove to be an entry ticket to the ocean of job opportunities in the segments of tourism, education, diplomatic services, interpretation, translation, international trade and relations, entertainment, public relations, mass media and journalism, publishing, communication, embassies & consulates. Similarly, many national and international bodies have also come forward and offer scholarships to qualified candidates to pursue many more languages through various provisions of scholarships and grants.

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTES AND ORGANIZATIONS

Many of the UNO’s agencies like those of World Health Organization (WHO), United Nations Children’s Emergency Fund (UNICEF) and other international organizations like the Red Cross offer a good scholarship to various countries. The interpreters visit various nations for better communication they require various experts to perform various assignments which are sine qua non of good foreign and diplomatic relationship the foreign language speakers who are helping in managing and boosting international trade as well as relations. The governments of the countries require foreign language speakers who are required to live abroad for the following assignments -

- Listening to foreign citizens, government and various other dignitaries,
- Reading, studying, translating and replying to intelligence findings and investigative reports in foreign languages,
- Establishing liaison with various departments in various countries,
- Conducting research activities in various foreign languages,
- Performing sundry jobs at the passport and visa issuing offices,
- Frisking and investigating passengers at the national and international airports, ports and places of historical importance.

TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY INDUSTRIES

In the present world scenario, tourism has grown to be a very big business and attracts many heavy crowds of tourists who always need foreign language experts who are capable of catering to the lingual needs of the foreign guests. Besides, hotels, restaurants, shopping malls, multiplex cinema halls and amusement parks need experts of various foreign languages to deal with foreign visitors. The entrepreneurs establish companies abroad and for this purpose they recruit foreign language experts to meet the lingual needs of the local cities and towns of various countries.

TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION

Recently the modus operandi of online communication and gaining of knowledge has undergone drastic changes across the world. We need linguists to translate the magnus opus of the renowned writers in a host of languages both for commerce and welfare purposes. The translated versions of books of the authors help increase the sales very surprisingly and thus the profit is also.

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi addressed the National Convention of Swachhaghris on April 10 at Motihari in Bihar. The event was organized to commemorate the centenary celebrations of the Satyagraha led by Mahatma Gandhi, in Champaran. He also distributed awards to Champion Swachhaghris for their activity. Being enthusiastic gathering on the occasion, the Prime Minister said that the atmosphere at Motihari, evoked the same spirit of mass movement that marked the Champaran Satyagraha, a century ago. He said that in this journey of Satyagraha in Swachhagrah, the people of Bihar have shown their ability to lead. He noted the remarkable progress made in toilet construction in Bihar in the last 4 years. He added that the state government has already installed toilets in 15.58 lakh houses, which is more than the total of 14.25 lakh houses in the history of the state. He also mentioned that the projects worth over Rs. 6600 crore launched under LPG connection drive and Ujjwala Yojana have been completed. He also mentioned the project for the rejuvenation of Motihari, which he described as a part of the history of Motihari. He mentioned that 11 projects worth more than Rs 3000 crore have been approved so far, to prevent waste water from entering the River Ganga. He said that about 50 lakh women had benefited from LPG connection drive through the Swachh Bharat Mission, or the fight against corruption, or the development of India?

He said that in this journey of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan as a phenomenon unparalleled anywhere in the world, in the 21st century. The Prime Minister expressed confidence that the resolute for Swachhata would write a new chapter of a clean and prosperous India.

For Separate Labour Laws

Narendra Modi said that the importance of protection and welfare of labour. Though, policy of unjustified ‘hire and fire’ policy is very good and we need to protect workers’ interests; however, one can’t justify same laws for big and small enterprises. Scenario has changed now and due to complex labour laws, Small Enterprises, instead of hiring labour gives shifting to contract labour. Contract labour is exploited by the intermediaries and organic relations. Entrepreneurs and the labour go missing, affecting welfare of both entrepreneurs and workers. The department of Labour under the present government has now started imposing Anti-Dumping Duty in a big way. In a written reply in Parliament, Commerce and Industry Minister Nirmala Sitharaman had said that Anti-Dumping duty is in force on 93 products coming from China. In addition, 40 cases concerning imports from China have been initiated by the Directorate General of Anti-Dumping and Allied Duties.

We find that the imposition of anti dumping duties on some items in the year 2016-17 yielded desirable results. Now since, on many other items of imports from China are not imposed, it is expected that imports from China will further decline. This would not only give scope to make India a manufacturing hub of the world.

How to Encourage ‘Make in India’

There is a need to facilitate small enterprises, there used to be a clear and comprehensive policy of preferential procurement from SSIs, which used to take the form of price preference or purchase preference. However, with the passage of time, these preferences have more or less weakened away. A preferential procurement policy has been made by the government, conducted by making General Financial Rules (GFR). Rule 153 of GFR states: “In procurement of goods for SSIs, the lowest bid, will be given the lowest-cost local supplier who is not from a non-local supplier, the lowest-cost local supplier who is within a margin of 20 per cent of the lowest bid, will be given the opportunity to match the lowest bid.

It is expected that preferential procurement of domestic goods would go a long way in encouraging domestic industry in general and Small Scale Industry in particular.

Ending Inspector Raj

There are more than 40 laws applicable on SSIs and more than 50 Inspectors visit their factories, and many of them have wide ranging powers to penalize. SSIs. Living under these threats, SSIs find it difficult to concentrate on core areas like production, marketing and up gradation of technology. There are many such laws which have lost utility in modern times, and there are many others which come in the way of healthy functioning of the economy in general and industry in particular. There is a dire need to end this tragedy. In this context, the process has been started to repeal some redundant laws under the present government, for smooth running of the economy.

There is a need to facilitate new entrepreneurs by single window clearance of all types. Some states have initiated this process. As more and more state governments are going online, this process will further accelerate. Under new initiatives for Startups, online clearances are given.

Building Infrastructure

It’s almost impossible to start and run Small Enterprises in a remote area. They are neither connected with rail or road, nor do they have assured source of power. Even in big and industrial areas, assured power supply is a big issue. At many places, generation facilities are not available.

There is a need to facilitate entrepreneurship, hardship and enthusiastic. They need conducive environment for entrepreneurship development. Many national and state level people are entrepreneurs, hardworking and enthusiastic. They need conducive environment for entrepreneurship development. Much has been done by the government and much more is expected.

The Memorandum of Understanding was finalized after the bilateral discussions between Mines Minister Narendra Singh Tomar and his counterpart Aziz Rabbah of Morocco.

U.S President Donald Trump has tweeted that Russia should get ready for missiles to be fired at its ally Syria, in response to an alleged chemical attack near Damascus on Saturday. His tweets came in response to a warning from Russian ambassador to Beirut, that Russian forces would shoot down any missiles fired at Syria. According to a monitor group, Syrian forces evacuated key defense buildings in Damascus in view of US threat. President Bashar al-Assad’s government has denied mounting a chemical attack on the rebel-held town of Douma.

Russian President Vladimir Putin has urged Israel’s Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu not to take any action that could further destabilise the situation in Syria, following Israeli strikes against a regime military base. The Kremlin said in a statement, that, in a telephone call, Putin requested Netanyahu to abstain from any action that could further destabilise the situation in the country, which would represent a threat to its security.

In an effort to narrow the gender gap in the United Arab Emirates, the Cabinet has approved the issuance of the Law on Equal Wages and Salaries for Men and Women. The State News Agency WAM reported that the new law will provide women with equal opportunities as gainers in the UAE’s development. It will further empower women to lead future national strategies and ambitious projects. UAE Cabinet’s approval of the Law on Equal Wages and Salaries is in line with the government’s objective to ensure the protection of women’s rights and the national role in their development process.
